

SEA ANGLING TRIPS

Do I need to have fished before?

No. The trips are designed as a family afternoon out, enjoyment being the main priority. The fishing is mixed but mainly mackerel with other species such as coalfish, pollock, dogfish, ling putting in an appearance.

What about tackle and bait?

All tackle and bait is provided. However, you are welcome to use your own.

Will we catch something?

It is almost unheard of for a trip to come back empty-handed, but even if you do, the scenery is stunning.

Can we keep what we catch?

You may keep as much of the catch as you wish.

Where do we go?

This very much depends on the weather and where the fish are. The decision is made on the day by your skipper.

Who is the skipper and what boat is it?

The skipper is Charlie (Laverty). The boat is called Amidas. It has a dark blue hull with blue superstructure. There are toilet facilities and there is a cabin. However, it is best to take some warm clothes as it will be cooler at sea than on land.

Where do I book a trip?

Here at Tackle and Books. Charlie can take no more than 12 (it does not matter whether you are fishing or not). It is uneconomical to sail with less than 6.

Trips normally last 3 hours

The favourite time is 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Leaving from MacBrayne's Pier (where the tourist office is)

Meet at the concrete steps at this side of the pier 10 minutes before sailing

What does it cost?

A standard 3-hour trip is £20 for adults, £15 for children.

You pay in advance at Tackle and Books. This books your place. If for any reason Charlie does not sail, your money is refunded in full.

Does the skipper cater for parties?

Yes. We are happy to phone Charlie and organise a time.
